Late Nominations
Late nominations are accepted with a payment of $2,000 on or before Dec. 15, 2015 (no 30-day grace period). To keep entry eligible, the nominator must continue to make all remaining sustaining payments and fees due after Dec. 15, 2015.

No Entries Accepted After Late Nominations due December 15, 2015

"The State of California Business & Professions Code, Section 19668(a) states: 'On or after July 1, 1995, it shall be unlawful for any person to enter or accept the entry of a horse in a race upon which there is pari-mutuel wagering until two years after the horse's foaling date'." Consequently, any nominated horse shall be eligible to be withdrawn from this race and all monies paid into the race on behalf of the nominated horse shall be returned to the owner, if the nominated horse has not attained the age of 24 months thirty days prior to the running of the Futurity trials. The withdrawal of all payments must be requested in writing at least 90 days prior to the scheduled trials or the running of race if trials are not required. It is the responsibility of the owner of the horse to notify P.C.Q.H.R.A. of their election to withdraw from this race.

* Subject to change based upon AQHA Guidelines for grading annual review
The undersigned represents that he/she and all persons for whom he/she is acting have read and are familiar with the Rules of Racing and the Regulations of the California Horse Racing Board and the race meeting conditions and agree to be bound by and comply with the same and with the acts and decisions of the California Horse Racing Board and horse racing officials, and that all animals shall be subject to the same and to the acts and decisions of the race officials and agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions:

1. All race nomination and sustaining payments are refundable if the refund request is made prior to 5 p.m. on the day of the payment deadline for the fee for which the refund is being requested.

2. Stalls are allotted by the Racing Association at whose track this race is to be run. Except as otherwise provided herein, there will be no refunds of nomination or sustaining fees for horses which fail to meet any requirement of eligibility.

3. The purse for the trials will not be less than the minimum base purse at the meeting. Trial purses will not be deducted from the added money or nomination or sustaining fees. Trial purses shall be distributed in the same manner as the regular races carded by the track, not to include starter fee(s).

4. Any payments returned by the cashing institution as non-sufficient funds shall be assessed a $50.00 handling charge, in addition to any bank charges. PCQHRA may, but is not obligated to, call the originator of the check and mail a letter to the address on the nomination form (and the name and address on the face of the check, if different) that the check has not been honored and stating the amount needed to reinstate the nomination. All handling charges, plus the payment amount, must be paid by cash, certified check, cashier’s check, or money order and be received by PCQHRA within five working days (weekends and holidays excluded) of PCQHRA’s written notification or the horse will be removed from eligibility to the race – no further action will be taken and there will be no refund of nomination or sustaining fees.

5. The decision of the stewards is all matters shall be final and entries are set up by the racing association at whose track this race is to be run and shall be stabled on the grounds no later than the deadline for other horses participating at the meeting. Except as provided herein, there will be no refunds of nomination or sustaining fees for horses which fail to meet any requirement of eligibility.

ASSEMBLY OF OWNERS

Change in ownership has no effect on eligibility of the horse as long as all nomination, sustaining, entry fees and all other obligations mandated for eligibility are satisfied.

ELIMINATION TRIALS

Each trial shall not exceed ten (10) horses. The trials shall be raced under the same conditions as the futurity. Ten (10) horses shall be selected from the trials to participate in the futurity; there will be a posted entry fee of $50.00 per horse. All horses shall be selected on the basis of the horse’s performance in the last trial. All horses shall be selected in the order of finish in the trials. If for any reason a tie exists, the horses involved shall draw lots to determine which shall participate in the trials. In case of disqualification, the horse disqualified shall be given the time plus one thousandth of a second of the horse which he is placed behind. The decision of the stewards is all matters shall be final and entries are accepted on the condition that those persons nomination and/or starting a horse in the trials or futurity agree to abide by their decision. All qualifiers (top ten) will be hair and blood tested to ensure the horse is ready to compete.

Nomination to this race do not guarantee a stall for the nominated horse. Stalls are allotted by the Racing Association at whose track this race is to be run. Should stall space be refused, the Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Racing Association and/or the Track are obligated only for the return of any nomination fees which have been paid, provided the horse meets all the requirements to be eligible for the race.

Nominations and sustaining fees will be accepted before the payment deadlines only through the United States mail postmarked (by the U.S. Post Office) no later than midnight of the payment deadline. For all nominating and sustaining payments, except the trial entry fee, there shall be an automatic (no penalty) grace period of 48 hours (excluding Sundays and postal holidays) in establishing acceptability of postmarks or to hand-deliver a payment to the PCQHRA office. In case of dispute, the only satisfactory evidence of payment shall be a certified mail receipt or a registered mail receipt bearing a United States Postal Service postmark on or before the due date for all nominating and sustaining payments, except the trial entry fee, during a period including the 30th day following each payment deadline, any owner may establish/re-establish an entry(s) eligibility by submitting a per entry payment of twice the regular fee due on the prescribed deadline. This 30-day period shall be reduced in cases where the trials for a race are being run prior to the expiration of this 30-day period. In such cases, a per entry payment of twice the regular fee must be submitted no less than 4 days prior to the running of the trials.

PCQHRA may, but is not obligated to, be a Supporting Member of P.O.CHR. Any payment notice shall be in no way absolute to the current owner from ultimate responsibility to ensure timely payment. The Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Racing Association reserves the right to cancel or reschedule the published date of the race for any reason which it deems good and sufficient. The Association also reserves the right, at its discretion, transfer this Futurity to any race track situated in the State of California. In such cases, any owner nominated to participate in the race at the old track shall be transferred to the new track. It is the sole responsibility of the current owner of each eligible entry to make timely payment to maintain eligibility. PCQHRA accepts no responsibility for providing any notice of deadlines or eligibility to any nominator or owner. Any notice provided by PCQHRA is only for the convenience of the nominator or owner. PCQHRA may elect to provide payment reminder notices, eligibility lists or any other notice, but PCQHRA is under no obligation to do so. Failure to mail or receive any notice shall in no way absolve the current owner from ultimate responsibility to ensure timely payment.
