Contested under the name of La Primera Del Ano Derby from 1978 to 2019. In 1987, 1988, and 1990 it was run at Bay Meadows.

Stakes Highlights; 1987, eventual world champion Florentine sets a then stakes record of :19.80 giving trainer Russell Harris one of his three La Primera wins. 1988, trainer Blane Schvaneveldt scores his third win in this race when James Lackey pilots Such An Easy Effort to a :19.82 win. 1992, John Creager and Russell Harris combine with Easily a Rogue after heavy favorite Corona Chick is scratched after acting up in the gate. 1994, Danny Cardoza gets his first stakes win as a trainer when Pretty Sensation wins the La Primera Del Ano Derby. He had won this race as a jockey only three years prior on How Special. 1995, Ah Sigh takes her first step in being named Champion Three-Year-Old Filly. 1997, Champagne Lane zooms to an easy win in her first start of the year. Jockey Tami Purcell and 1997, AQHA Champion trainer Donna McArthur each earn their first La Primera Del Ano wins. 1998, Girl Secrets begins her terrific campaign with a victory in the La Primera Del Ano. Owner Ed Allred had previously won this race with Go Proudly in 1983 and How Special in 1991. 2003, Sent off as the second longest shot on the board at 49-1 odds, Ipomea broke sharply from post four on the way to outfinishing Classic Sassy Chic in the Grade 2 derby. 2008, Forgive Him won the richest La Primera since Florentine's win in 1987. 2019, It's a repeat for the connections of Parsons Family Ltd., trainer Chris O'Dell and jockey Eduardo Nicasio. 2020, the newly named Los Alamitos Oaks goes to Dreams Divine, who is unbeaten as a sophomore in 2020.
