Town Policy Handicap Highlights: 1984, eventual champion Dashs Dream captures the initial Town Policy Handicap while giving jockey Danny Cardoza his first of three wins in this race. 1986, another world champion Gold Coast Express uses the Town Policy handicap as a springboard for later major victories such as a win in the Champion Of Champions. 1988, Send The Gals Candy takes advantage of a sealed track to set a then track record of 17:29 giving trainer Jimmy Self his first Town Policy Handicap victory. 1990, Cardoza scores his third Town Policy win when guiding Movin North to victory in the first division. 1994, The Town Policy is split into divisions again and jockey John Creager begins his monster year by guiding Artesias Special Gal to victory in the first division. Eddie Garcia and Fast Wheelin Royalty nose out Moo Vin First in the second division for trainer Connie Hall. 1995, Meter Me Gone, on his way to being named Champion Three-Year-Old Colt gives jockey Kenny Hart and trainer Bob Gilbert their first wins in this event. Trainer Blane Schvaneveldt earns his record fifth Town Policy Handicap victory as BCR Town Jewel wins the second division. 1996, Dashing Folly in her first Los Alamitos start easily wins the Town Policy Handicap. This win would begin an undefeated season that would culminate with her being named World Champion Quarter Horse of 1996. 1997, Champagne Lane wins her second stakes race of the season giving 1997 AQHA champion trainer Donna McArthur her second consecutive win in this event. Jockey Tami Purcell also earns her second Town Policy Handicap victory. Champagne Lane would finish second in the voting for Champion Three-year-Old Filly. 2009, starting this year, the Town Policy became a 400 yard race and was established as the consolation race for the Los Alamitos Super Derby. 2010, Neighbors Reid Pierson and Owen Udy of Garland, Utah finished 1-2 with their horses Sparky E Boy and Auto Rotate in the Town Policy. 2011, Eight days after his half brother Illegal Smile won a Grade 1 race, Blazin Son scored in the Town Policy Handicap. 2012, New Look won the El Primero Del Ano Derby in the Spring and completed a nice season with a victory in the Town Policy. 2015, Rodrigo Aceves picked up stakes win number 92 in his career, leaving him just one shy from tying Danny Cardoza for 8th place of all-time in stakes wins at Los Alamitos.
